Artist's Summary

A natural ability and strong desire to draw surfaced early in Joseph Liotta's life. Throughout childhood, he was constantly drawing, painting or involved in some manner of creative project. Currently, his art experience includes a number of cover designs and interior illustrations for magazines, newsletters, textbooks and published game modules; graphic designs for business organizations; and artwork for the private sector. Mr. Liotta also teaches some children's and adult education art and graphics courses and works in a variety of media including pencil, watercolor, pen and ink, and digital. He studied art at Hofstra University, Nassau College and other schools in the Long Island area, and has been a member of the following organizations: Roundtable Creative Solutions (Graphic Design Meetup), Nassau College Computer Graphics Club, Nassau College Art Club, Amateur & Professional Cartoonists Association.
